

The International Association of Jewish Public Service Employees was formed in order to promote the religious spirit of its members who are of the Jewish faith and their families; strengthen friendship, fellowship, and promote each other's welfare among all members of the Association and their respective agencies; promote and cooperate in the general welfare of the community as a whole and uphold the constitution of the United States of America.

This organization is looking forward to facilitate the future professional educational needs of Jewish Public Servants throughout its membership and the community. Organizations made up of at least ten members of the Jewish faith may join. As a matter of inclusion, individual persons may join this organization in support of its goals and objectives, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, gender, age or sexual orientation.
